Newmarket Riverwalk Commons

The brand new Newmarket Riverwalk Commons is conveniently located at 200 Doug Duncan Drive in Newmarket, about 40km north of Toronto.

This urban park provides an ideal race venue for the Upper Canada Mall Easter Seals 10k as it links the race site with the Tom Taylor Trail system. The site allows both the 10k and 5k races to start and finish in the same place and gives the race a big city feel, while maintaining its small town charm.

There is plenty of parking available at the race site with the furthest parking lot located approximately 500m from the start line.
